

Christie, the King's Servant

By Mrs. O. F. Walton

Student Name _____

Quiz Date _____

Reading Comprehension Quiz by Lamplighter Publishing

Based on the reading of the book, Christie the King's Servant, select the correct answer.

1. When Mr. Christie spoke on the subject, "What am I?" he meant that---
 - a. we are servants; either servants of sin or servants of Christ.
 - b. a person can be a babe in Christ or a mature Christian.
 - c. the things people say and do define them.
 - d. we are sheep, and the Lord is our Shepherd.

2. When little Jack showed big Jack the old barrel organ, it made big Jack think ---
 - a. that one day he would like to own one.
 - b. that it would be a fine gift to give the child a new one.
 - c. about when he was a boy and how he delighted in hearing the organ grinder.
 - d. about the joy that it brings the Lord when He is glorified in music.

3. When Mr. Christie preached about another kind of tug of war, he compared it to ---
 - a. the way a soul is pulled by those people and things that tug a soul, either to Christ or away from Him.
 - b. dodge ball and the way people must dodge the fiery darts of the wicked one.
 - c. the way friendships can tug on our hearts when we are friends in the Lord.
 - d. the way we sometimes win and sometimes lose in a war, but must keep on trying our best.

4. Mr. Christie knew Jack Villiers' mother and told him that as a girl she had loved the song, "Home Sweet Home," because---
 - a. she could sing the entire song through and knew all the verses by heart.
 - b. it had been a favorite song that her family had sung together many times.
 - c. it reminded her of the home she shared with her mother before her mother died.
 - d. it reminded her of her home above and the way to go to heaven by loving Jesus.

5. What important thought made Jack Villiers sob like a child in the preacher's home the evening after their talk about Jack's mother?
 - a. He knew he must decide once and for all if he should be an artist or a preacher.
 - b. He knew he might never see his mother again if he did not come to Christ.
 - c. He knew at last that his grandfather had been a noble man who sent money to educate Mr. Christie.
 - d. He was afraid to speak out about his faith in Christ to his unbelieving friends.

6. After Jack Villiers became devoted to Jesus, Polly's son became seriously ill. This trial taught Jack that the way to please the Lord most was by ---
 - a. keeping himself from temptations and finding ways to resist serving himself.
 - b. showing kindness to other people and praying in faith for little John to be healed.
 - c. reading the Bible each day early in the morning.
 - d. attending church every week even if he did not feel like going.

7. After little John became well, Mr. Christie's sermon touched people's hearts as he spoke the Apostle John's words, "We _____ that we have passed from death to life."
 - a. know
 - b. imagine
 - c. think
 - d. hope

8. Jack's friend Tom came to visit, and they argued because ---
 - a. Jack's responsibilities kept him from spending time with Tom.
 - b. Jack had accepted Jesus as his Savior and wanted to keep Sunday as the Lord's day.
 - c. Tom had spent a lot of money on their trip to Scarborough, and Jack was ungrateful.
 - d. Jack had promised to watch little John, which upset Tom because he desired Jack's time.

9. When Mr. Christie preached about "Where are you going?" who was listening intently, hidden from sight by the bank?
 - a. Marjorie
 - b. Duncan
 - c. Tom
 - d. Polly

10. The month Jack Villiers spent in Runswick was the most important month of his life because ---
 - a. it reminded him of his dear departed mother and her love for him.
 - b. it was where he met the love of his life, his wife.
 - c. it was the beginning of a new life in Christ, which continued for the rest of his life.
 - d. it brought many Christian friends into his life who were friends for eternity.