

Nobody Loves Me

By O.F. Walton

Student Name _____

Quiz Date _____

Reading Comprehension Quiz by Lamplighter Publishing

Based on the reading of the book Nobody Loves Me, select the correct answer.

1. At the very beginning of the story Old Grumpy resolved ---
  - a. that she would devote her life to Christ.
  - b. that she would adopt any animal left on her doorstep.
  - c. never to turn down a hand out.
  - d. that because she was never loved she would never love anybody.

2. The kitten that Grumpy adopted and grew to love ---
  - a. was left on her doorstep by Old Joel as a Christmas gift.
  - b. was the first link in the chain that would lead her to love God.
  - c. was the most beautiful creature that she had ever seen.
  - d. was a gift for her little bairn, Lily.

3. After Grumpy's cat disappeared, Grumpy ---
  - a. wandered up and down the court muttering, "Nobody loves me, nobody does!"
  - b. adopted another cat immediately.
  - c. vowed that she would never let the love she felt for her cat fade away.
  - d. went to church and prayed for the Lord to return the cat to her.

4. The next link in the chain leading Old Grumpy to the Lord was made ---
  - a. when Old Joel gave her his own beloved cat.
  - b. when Mrs. Perkins let her adopt Albert Joseph.
  - c. when she was given Lily to raise as her own child.
  - d. when she was given the gift of a Bible.

5. What did Old Grumpy find in the carpetbag that Mrs. Perkins gave to her?
  - a. She found a small purse full of shillings.
  - b. She found a small locked box.
  - c. She found an addressed letter.
  - d. She found an old journal.

6. As Old Grumpy spent more and more money on her little barin she thought ---
  - a. "Anything for my pretty child."
  - b. "This child is costing me a fortune."
  - c. "I wonder where I can get more money?"
  - d. "I must pray for the Lord to provide for us."

7. Who, from a heart filled with love, gave Lily a soft warm plaid frock (dress)?
  - a. Old Grumpy
  - b. Old Joel
  - c. Mrs. Havercroft
  - d. Joseph Albert

8. The Lord added the last links to the chain leading Grumpy to Himself by ---
  - a. encouraging Old Joel to ask Old Grumpy to marry him.
  - b. bringing a litter of kittens to her doorstep.
  - c. showing her His love through the children in Ivy Court.
  - d. taking Lily to heaven and allowing sorrow in her life.

9. At the end of the story when Grum cried, "Nobody loves me," Mrs. Havercroft said ---
  - a. "Don't forget that Old Joel loves you."
  - b. "Don't say that, it's a lie, the dear Lord loves thee, Grum."
  - c. "You must love in order to be loved."
  - d. "One day you may meet a man who will truly love you."

10. Finally, at the very end of the story, Grum ---
  - a. lived happily ever after in Ivy Court.
  - b. moved in with her new husband in Ivy Cottage.
  - c. gave all of her life savings to the church.
  - d. dedicated her life to serving the Lord by serving others with Mrs. Havercroft.